President's Note

Greetings Quilters!

This year of Guild meetings is looking promising for all kinds of opportunities involving in-person social interaction. At the meetings (only a few ZOOM meetings) we get to see quilts up close at Show and Tell AND at the program presentations. And we get to chat with all our friends without pressing any buttons on a computer.

Make sure to sign up to help out with our quilt show on April 29-30, 2023, at St Matthews church in Voorheesville. Also, there is something for everyone in our schedule of classes ... this is a great way to learn a new technique and make new friends. Display your talents by entering the December Challenge "A Quilt for All Seasons". The Service Program is always looking for donations and we have a huge library full of ideas. Details on all this is available in this newsletter and on our website QUILTINC.ORG.

In addition to looking forward to all our meetings, I confess I am excited about cookies and a holiday atmosphere at the December meeting!!"

Happy Quilting! Pat

Lecture/Trunk Show: One Wild Ride – a Quilting Adventure with Mary Pal – whether you are familiar with Mary Pal's work or not, you will want to watch, listen - and then sign up for her workshop scheduled in April! This lecture is brought to you early so you have a chance to appreciate Mary's unique work and creativity before missing out on the opportunity to participate in a class with her! Registration information is available below in "April"

Open Sew via Zoom following the Guild meeting and program

MARCH 2023 - In Person for Service and group birthday party

Friday, March 10

Service work session.

Are you one who frequently misses this event? If so, you not only miss seeing some beautiful quilt tops, but the opportunity to visit with friends and make new ones while pinning quilt sandwiches. It is a fun and rewarding day. Y

You can select your favorite to quilt and bind, completing it for the Guild to be donated to one of the many organizations serving the elderly, disabled, disadvantaged, new immigrants and our Veterans. See you there!!

Many thanks to the Service committee and other members who regularly participate in this vital Guild function.

Open Sew – (following completion of pinning quilts for Service at the Church).

Bring your machines to work on fidget quilts, walker bags and stay to work on these or your own projects in the afternoon.

MAY 2023 – In Person with Debbie Wendt <http://www.wendtquilting.com/>

Thursday, May 11

Full Day workshop: “Diamond Tipped Tools” Start a quilt or make a table runner using a jelly roll and complimentary fabric and your Brilliant Bindings ruler as a template. This ruler is “brilliant” in helping get that perfect length and cut in completing a binding and required for this class. Isn’t it great to have tools with multiple functions!

Registration fee: $65 members // $77 non-members

Friday, May 12

Lecture/Trunk Show: “Teaching the World to Quilt”

2023 Quilt Show We have dates for the quilt show!

We have reserved the social hall at St. Matthew's church in Voorheesville for the Quilt Exposition, so please save April 28-30, 2023, for us! Save April 26 for judging, April 28 for Set Up and April 29-30 for our show! Thank you to our committee chairs who have volunteered their time and energy to making this a successful event. Please contact co-chairs Mary Helen Collen at collenmhl@gmail.com or julieannfortran@gmail.com to offer your assistance.

NOTE: Please see the last few pages of this Newsletter for additional information and the list of committee chairs.

NOTE ABOUT OPEN SEW:

Participation at in-person and Zoom Open Sews has been minimal – as in 3-5 people. As a result, only a few sessions are scheduled for the 2022-2023 Guild year. Make note of the in-person sews on Friday afternoons following the Guild meetings in December 2022 and March 2023. These are great days to work on a project or pin one of your own quilts using the large tables while socializing with friends. Only one Zoom session is scheduled for February 2023, but it is simple to add additional ones which can be on non-Guild meeting/workshop days. Just let us know if you and a group of friends are interested in sessions to be set up on days and times of your choosing.

We need to hear from you! Please contact Sandy Jung at sconradi@gmail.com or Lorraine Doyno Evans at lorraine319@me.com to convey your interest in open sews and to volunteer to help set up/clean up at a specific meeting. If these are well attended – i.e., 8 or more members in attendance at each session, the Guild can consider adding in full day, in-person open sews for 2023-24. The attendance needs to warrant the expense of reserving/using the room at the church.

Placemat Project

Join the guild's Placemat Project! Quilted placemats are collected at guild meetings throughout the year and are distributed in December to local organizations serving the elderly, shut-ins, and other people in need. Our placemats bring much joy to the recipients. We donate hundreds every year!

Any cheerful design is welcome. The recommended finished size is 14" x 18", give or take an inch.

Note: There are prizes! If you would like your placemats judged for a prize, attach your name securely to each one using a piece of tape or a safety pin and paper. (First prize, $20; second prize, $15; third prize, $10; the quilter who individually makes the largest number of placemats wins $20.)

Placemats to be judged must be submitted by the November meeting. Because this year's November meeting is all ZOOM, you may bring your placemat to be judged to Becky and Mary Helen at the DRC parking lot between 11am – Noon on Thursday, November 10, the day before the meeting. (First prize, $20; second prize, $15; third prize, $10; the quilter who individually makes the largest number of placemats wins $20.)

If you have questions, contact Becky Moran or Mary Helen Collen.

Quilting 101

Quilting 101 is looking for presenters in December 2022 to demonstrate a quilting technique or techniques; also, someone to do a 15–30-minute presentation at the June 2023 meeting. Please contact Ruth Kvale if you would like to participate.

Show and Share for Zoom Meetings*:

Please send pictures of your projects (max 4 quilts) to Mary Phillips at mphill2@nycap.rr.com by the Tuesday before the guild meeting for her to assemble a Show and Share PowerPoint for the meeting.

This applies only to Zoom meetings and not hybrid meetings.

Copper Moon Quilting

...is a longarm quilting business owned by new member Kasey Maikshilo, and her husband Timothy. She mentioned this while packing up a rather large service quilt to longarm. You may contact her at coppermoonquilting.com for more information

December 2022 QUILT Challenge A Quilt for all Seasons

“Winter, spring, summer and fall, this is my favorite time of all”

This challenge does not have to represent winter, spring, summer or fall unless you wanted it to. Maybe your favorite time is a holiday, time of day, special occasion, or an event. Use your imagination!!

Please submit a 35-word description of your quilt.

The quilt can be either a traditional or non-traditional design and will be voted on by members at the December 2022 meeting. Prizes will be awarded to the top three viewer’s choice in the two different categories.

To be eligible for this challenge, the quilt must:

- * have been started after the announcement of the challenge
- * have a perimeter of less than 144 inches
- * be finished (quilted and bound)
- * have no uncovered identifying labels

If you have any questions, please e-mail Judi Doody (judidoodo@yahoo.com) or

Mary Helen Collen (collenmh1@gmail.com) Have fun!!

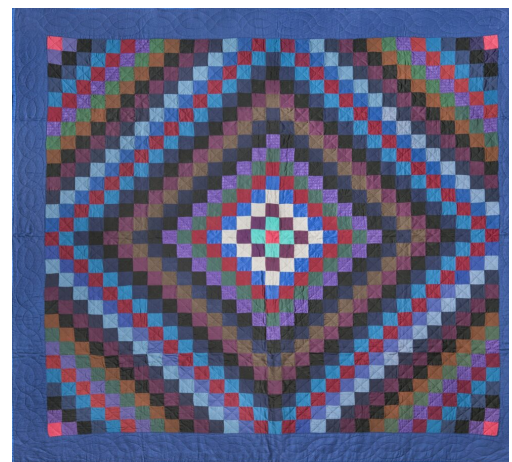

Details will also be on the website

Registration Information
Q.U.I.L.T., Inc.: Presents An Exposition 2023
Saturday April 29 and Sunday April 30, 2023

Each quilter may submit up to eight (8) entries (quilts and wearable art). There is no limit on the number of pieces that can be judged. Registration forms may be submitted (in person) or postmarked by Thursday January 5, 2023.

All quilts must be made by members of Q.U.I.L.T., Inc. Only quilts which have not been exhibited in prior Q.U.I.L.T., Inc. shows may be registered.

REGISTRATION FORM NOTES:

- PRIORITY NUMBER (for displaying quilts): Please assign a number to each item entered, starting with any “judged” items. For example, if I am entering 2 items for judging and 4 that will not be judged, I will number my judged items 1 and 2 and I will number my non-judged items 3, 4, 5, 6. If too many quilt entries are received for display, the PRIORITY NUMBER, registration date, and size limitations will be used to eliminate quilts.

- JUDGED AND NON-JUDGED QUILTS: Any quilt is eligible for judging, including framed quilts. A judged or non-judged quilt consists of two or more layers that are joined together and quilted. Only 100 entries (quilts and wearable art combined) will be accepted for judging. If too many judged quilt entries are received, the PRIORITY NUMBER and registration date will be used to eliminate quilts.

- JUDGED AND NON-JUDGED WEARABLE ART: A judged, or non-judged wearable art entry should include in its design, construction or embellishment one or more quilt techniques (piecing, appliqué, quilting, etc.) in some part of the garment. Batting or middle layer is not required.

- CHALLENGE PIECES: There is no fee or requirement for a description for the challenge pieces.

- SUBMISSIONS: (judged and non-judged):
 - o a separate registration form for each item entered in the Show,
 - o a 4”X6” photo of the entire quilt to help the display committee plan for the Show. Photo maybe printed on plain printer/copier paper and trimmed to 4”X6”. Please include the following information on the back of each photo: your name, phone number, priority number, title of entry, and dimensions of quilt ___”wide ___”long. Please use a paper clip or staple, but not tape to attach your photo to the registration form. (All of your entries may be mailed in one envelope.)

 - o a check for total amount due (only one check covering all submissions)

 - o Self-addressed stamped envelope (SASE) (only one SASE covering all submissions)

All entries must be submitted or postmarked by Thursday January 5, 2023. If you are still working on your quilt or wearable art and are reasonably confident about completing it by the quilt delivery date; Monday April 17, 2023, submit your registration form by January 5, 2023. Quilt delivery will be at the Delmar Reformed Church, or by special arrangement with Julie-Ann Fortran or Mary Helen Collen.

- DISPLAY CARD INFORMATION: (Guide for brief description) Please keep your description to 35 words or less. Include the following information:

1. a) Design/pattern source — Original (must be a new creation and not a copy of a previous work). If a pattern is used, please list pattern information including magazine, book or workshop, project title and author/instructor.
2. b) Technique — Pieced by hand or machine; appliquéd by hand or machine; mixed media, such as embroidery, beading, stamping, etc.
3. c) Interesting details—You might describe your inspiration; why you made the quilt and/or for whom; anything unusual/interesting back, etc.
4. d) Special details (used for displaying in the Show)
5. e) Details entered as part of the questions on the registration form, do not need to be repeated in the 35 words description.
6. f) A description is not required for challenge pieces.

- LABELING, HANGING SLEEVES, PILLOWCASES, DELIVERY, PICKUP: Information that includes a number for each item will be sent via your self- addressed stamped envelope after receipt of the Registration Forms. (NOTE: You need only send ONE stamped self-addressed envelope regardless of number of registration forms.) Sleeves must be at least 4” deep. Quilts need to be delivered in a cloth bag; one quilt or item per bag. Please do not use a plastic bag. Required labels MUST be present on the bag and on the quilt. We are unable to accept quilts delivered without a cloth bag or the required details. Details will be mailed after registration ends.
- FEES: There is an entry fee for each non-judged item and for each judged item, but not for each challenge item. If the committee finds it necessary to further limit the number of entries, your entry fee for that item will be returned to you. Entry fees: $7per non-judged item and $10 per judged item. All registration forms must be postmarked, or hand delivered by Thursday January 5, 2023. Please mail registration forms to Q.U.I.L.T., Inc., PO Box 523, Delmar, NY 12054-0523.
- INSURANCE: Q.U.I.L.T., Inc. will provide security and insurance from the time your entry is in our possession until the item is signed out after the Show. The maximum for which an item may be insured is $1,000 unless you have an appraisal or sales record documenting a higher value. The amount paid for a loss, without an appraisal or sales slip will be determined by the insurance company, based on a recent sales record of an item of like kind and quality. All exhibitors should have a high-quality, full shot of the entry and a close-up shot of details of the entry in case of loss. Since our cost for this insurance depends on the total value of the insured items, we ask that you carefully estimate the value of your entry. While Q.U.I.L.T., Inc. will make every effort to protect your entry, it will be your responsibility to validate any insurance claim with the insurance company.
- MAXIMUM QUILT SIZE: 116” wide by 120” long. We will have a limited number of these very large spaces.
